STUDENT LIFE

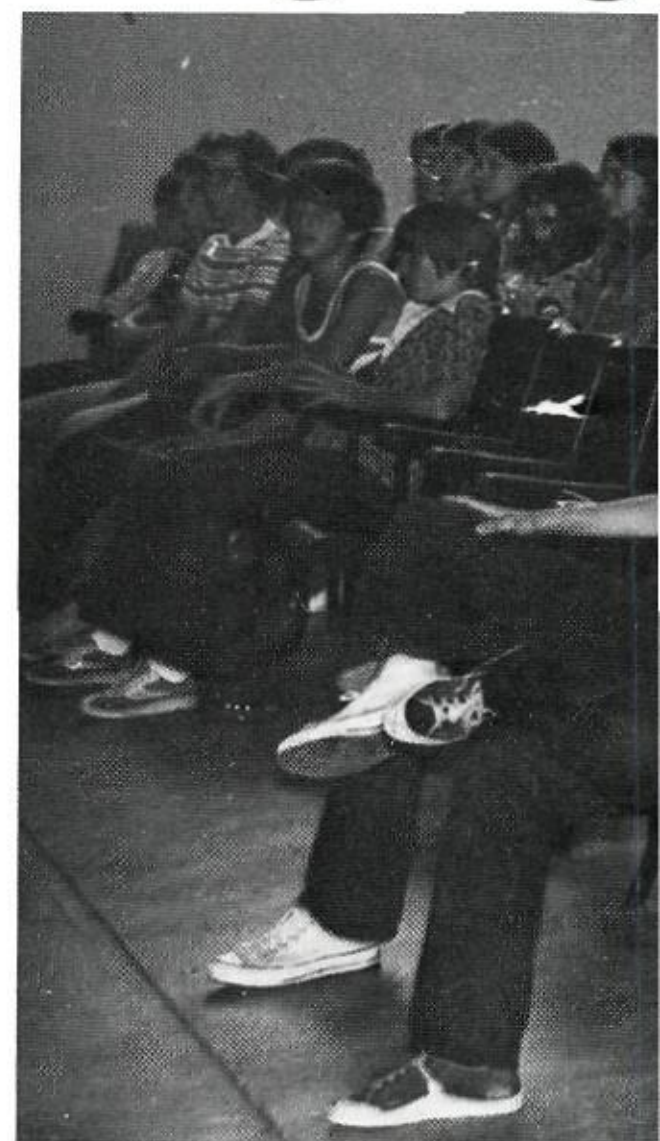

Pre-school for high school students may sound ridiculous, but for freshmen and some upperclassmen, school started weeks before the official opening. Pre-school at BHS means preparing and practicing which is what the band, queen members, and cheerleaders do weeks before the first football game.

Orientation for the freshmen was held during the summer by the student council. Council members made signs and maps for the freshmen and newcomers, and then led a tour of the school.

Upperclassmen also had a chance to sign up for favorite teachers in a special session during the summer. This was the first year the guidance office allowed this.

First day at school brings chaos

First day at BHS is an experience that every freshman remembers; it's like entering a new world. Everything and everybody is "soooooooo" big, and the first reaction to the place is total bewilderment. Seniors seem to be much older than they are, and teachers seem as permanent as building fixtures.

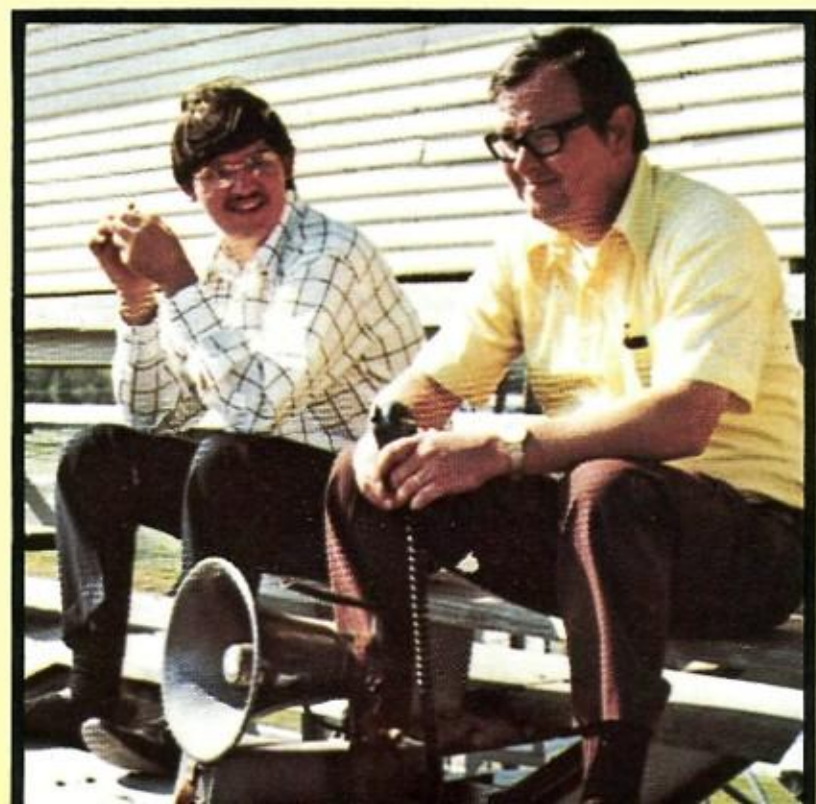

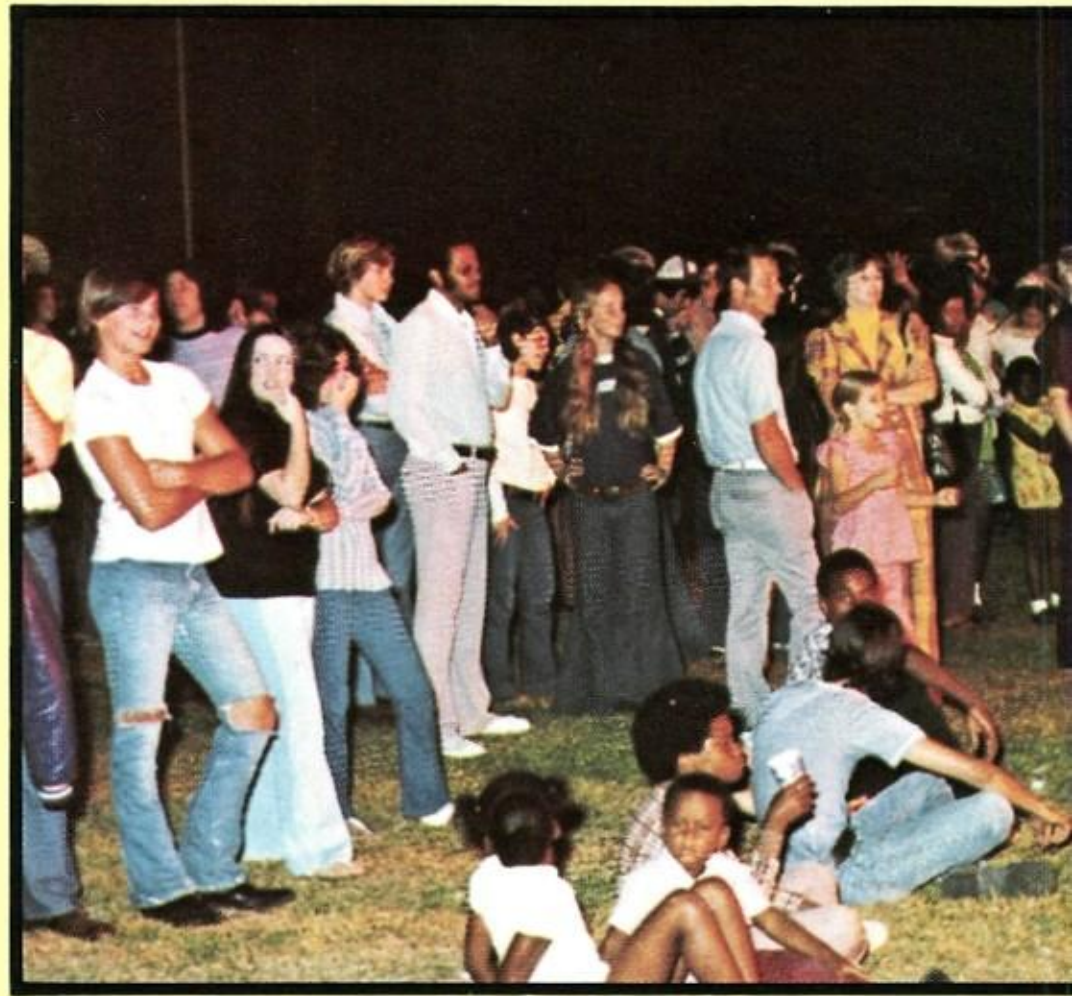

The feeling of lost identity haunts all freshmen and transfer students, but this feeling soon fades away with familiarity.

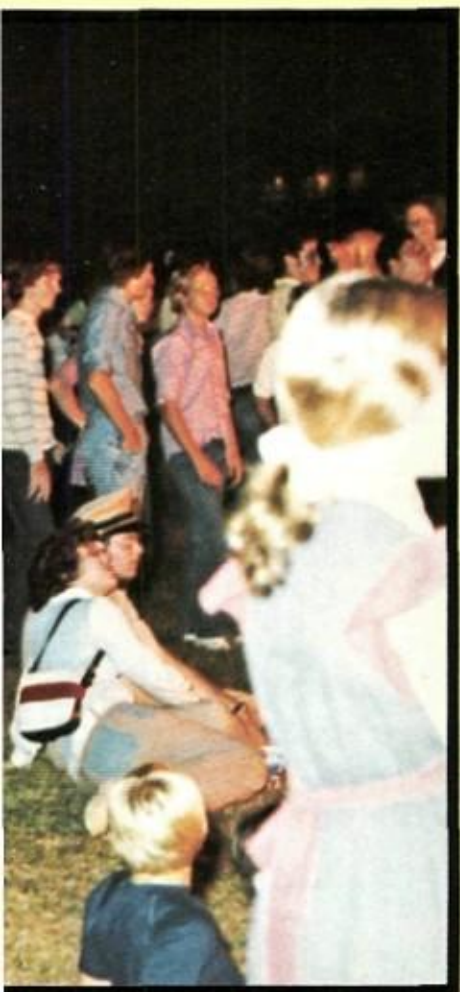

Most of the first day is spent writing themes or compositions about the summer vacation. The other half of the day is taken up with changing schedules and being placed in the right classes. The most interesting part of first day, however, is being with friends and making new ones.

The impression of the school is good, but it is warm friendly atmosphere that makes it the greatest.

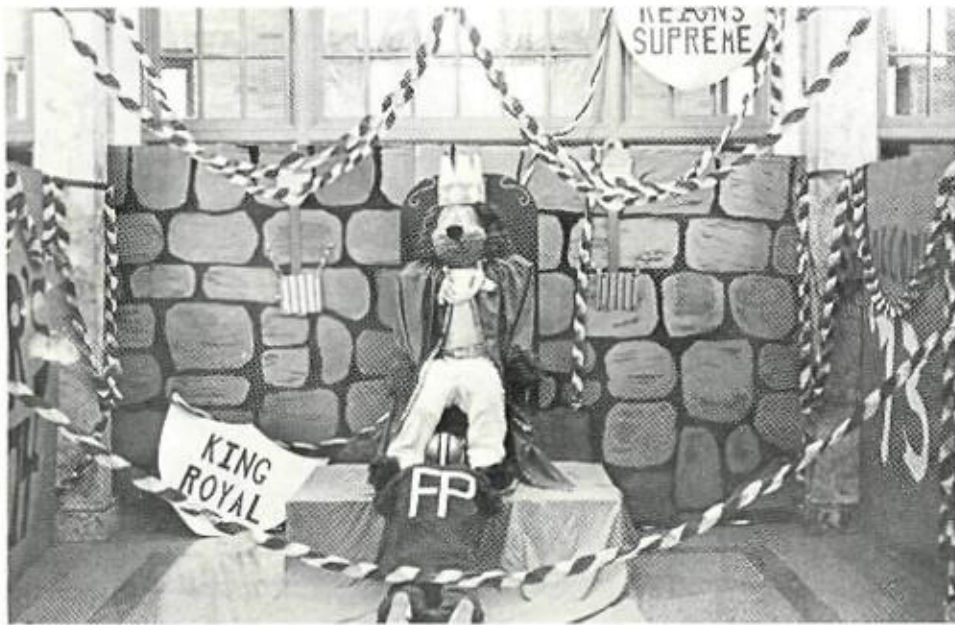

Left: Brenda Johnson, Linda Merrill, and Dee Trees display the different expressions for the first school day. Decorations contests begin Homecoming '73

Homecoming week events began when the four classes set up hall decorations and study periods decorated doors. The Booster Club presented to the winning Junior Class a $15 check for their project, "Keep Beaumont Beautiful; Can the Trojans." Home-room door decorations were won by students of Mr. Harold Clifton, and Ms. Evangeline George.

Derby Day shows BHS creativity

Homecoming '73 saw the addition of a new contest - Derby Day. Students arrived well prepared for competition with an endless variety of hats. Judges named Kathy Hennington, Laura Perkins, and Christy Thorp overall winners on the basis of their creative head gear.

Dunking machine proves main attraction

The day before the Homecoming game, faculty and students gathered on the campus lawn for a picnic and carnival. Among the many forms of entertainment were music, games, and contests.

Musical entertainment was provided by "Fat Jack," a group partly composed of Beaumont High students.

The dunking machine proved to be a star attraction as picnikers tried their aim to soak student and faculty participants. Other attractions were apple bobbing, car bashing, tire rolling, wheelbarrow racing, sack racing, three-legged racing, feather blowing, and other assorted contests.

As the afternoon contests ended, ticket stubs were drawn for prizes.

Rain wets fans, fails to dampen win over Trojans

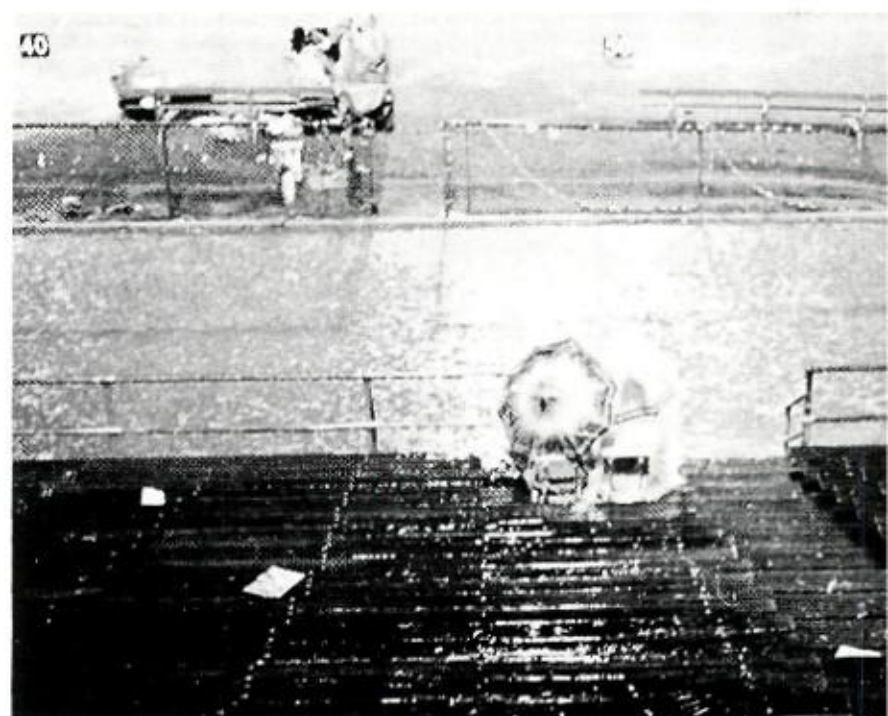

Due to the downpour which delayed the start of the Homecoming game, halftime activities were cancelled; Homecoming queen Kathy Olexa was crowned at the dance, which followed the football game. Despite the rain, team spirit prevailed as the Purples went on to a wet Homecoming '73 victory over Forest Park.

Kathy Olexa reigns as Homecoming queen

Rain forced halftime activities indoors, where the Queens presented roses to original Queens, who were honored guests, and where Kathy Olexa was crowned queen at the dance. Her attending court consisted of senior princesses Christy Thorp and Beth Woodward, and junior duchesses Adrienne Charlton and Mary Galles. Sophomore duchesses were Mary Jacobs and Marla Taylor, and freshman duchesses included "Peetie" Fort and Julie Wilson. The dancers were musically entertained by "Mr. Clean".

Student skits are creative at pep rallies

Pep Rallies were especially entertaining with students dressing up as drill team members from rival schools.

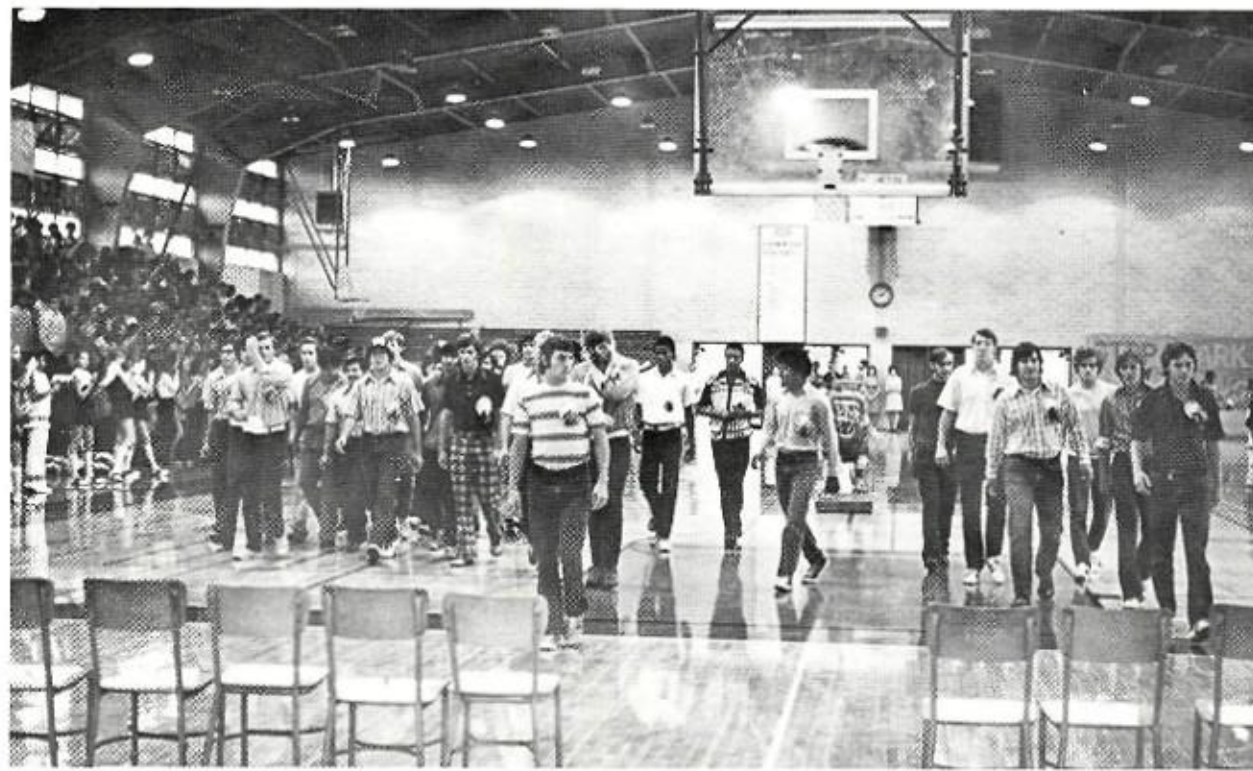

Theresa Cantu, Cathy Jacobs, Shawna Peters and Debbie Gonzales imitated Vidor twirlers.

The Purple Queens were not be out done and put on their own outstanding performance dressed as the Buffalo Bells for the match against French.

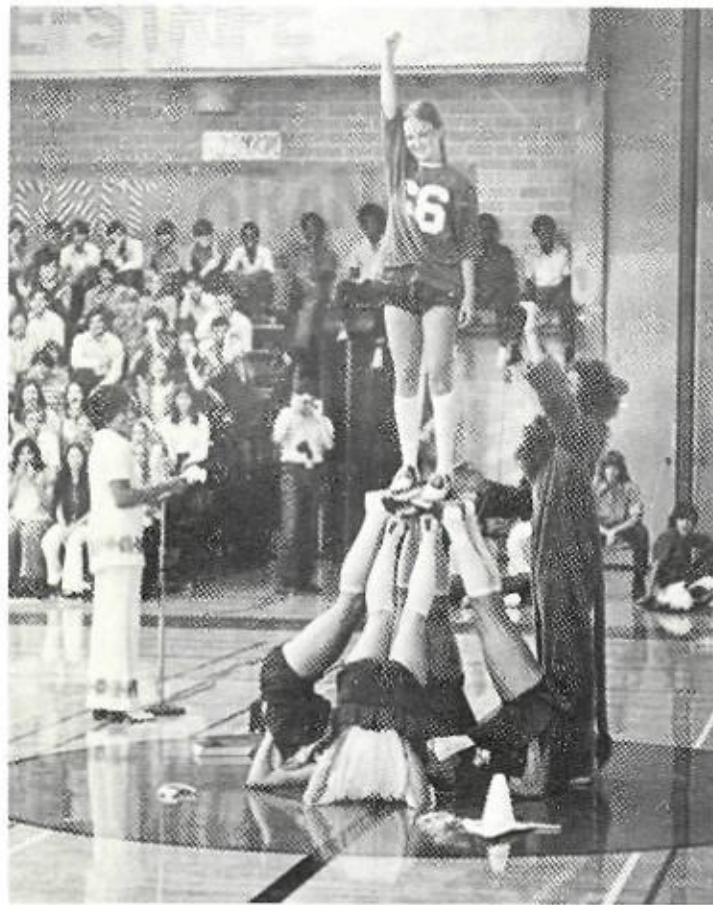

The Homecoming pep rally was one of the best with a few teachers leading cheers in front of students.

spirit for Royal Purple fans

At the end of each year, elections are held to select 14 cheerleaders for the following year. The election is based on a popularity vote by the student body to choose six varsity, four junior varsity, and four freshman cheerleaders.

They begin practice at the first of the summer and work through August when they attend cheerleader camp. At the University of Texas camp, the cheerleaders won grand champion for the third consecutive year.

This year the varsity cheerleaders were Melody Campbell, Janie Dodd, Cynthia Martindale, Lorri McKnight, and Kathy Olexa. J.V. cheerleaders were Pam Broussard, Susan Mudd, Marla Taylor and Lettie Wheat. The freshmen were Myla Cardin, Elyse Cokinos, Dawn Lackey and Lynn Taylor.

Top students inducted by NHS

The National Honor Society accepted 37 new members this year, including five seniors and 32 juniors.

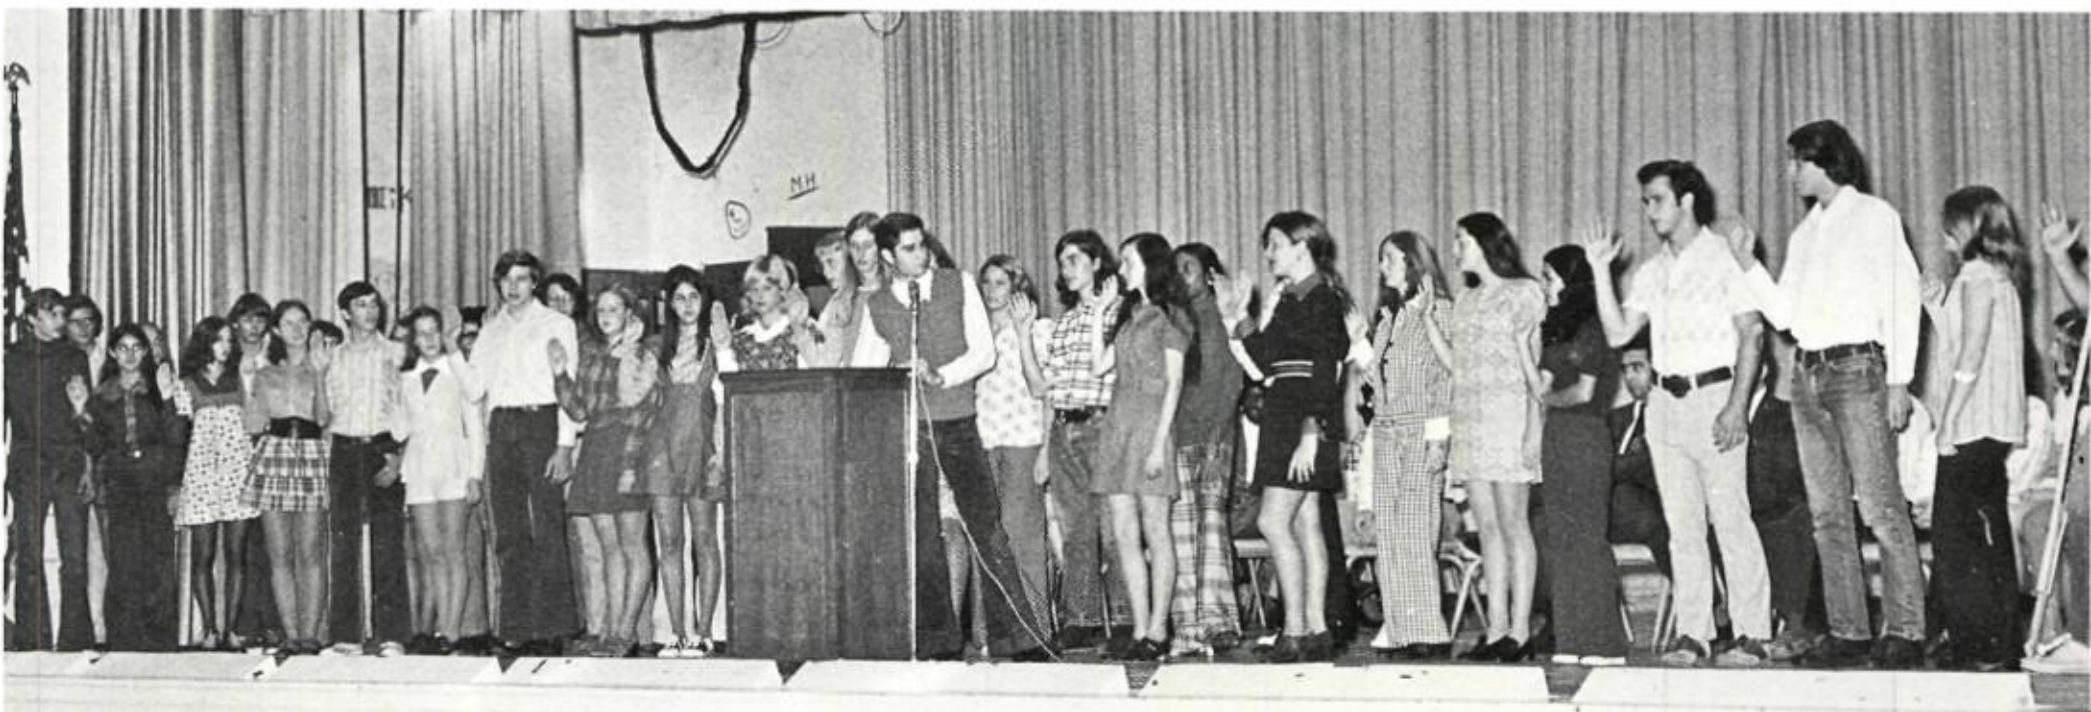

To be considered for membership, a student must have obtained a 91.5 average, participated in extra-curricular activities in addition to having demonstrated good character.

Mr. Joseph Kushner is the NHS sponsor for the 1973-74 school year. Ray Walton is president.

relaxing

Even though there weren't as many assemblies this year as in previous years, the ones scheduled were a welcome break for students.

Purples listened to the sounds of the Lamar Stage Band and the Beaumont High Orchestra and Choir.

There were assemblies which urged students to buy the Pine Burr, senior rings, and graduation invitations.

TWIRP Day and Senior Day were purely fun assemblies produced by seniors.

Students with outstanding service and academic records were recognized by the community and school officials in two separate assemblies.

Another World? TWIRP assembly

Above: Kathy Hennington and Allan Night portray faculty members.

Basing the theme on television soap operas and programs, this year's TWIRP assembly was probably one of the best in years past.

Showing on station KBHS was "Room 121," where teachers were shown returning to the classroom as students.

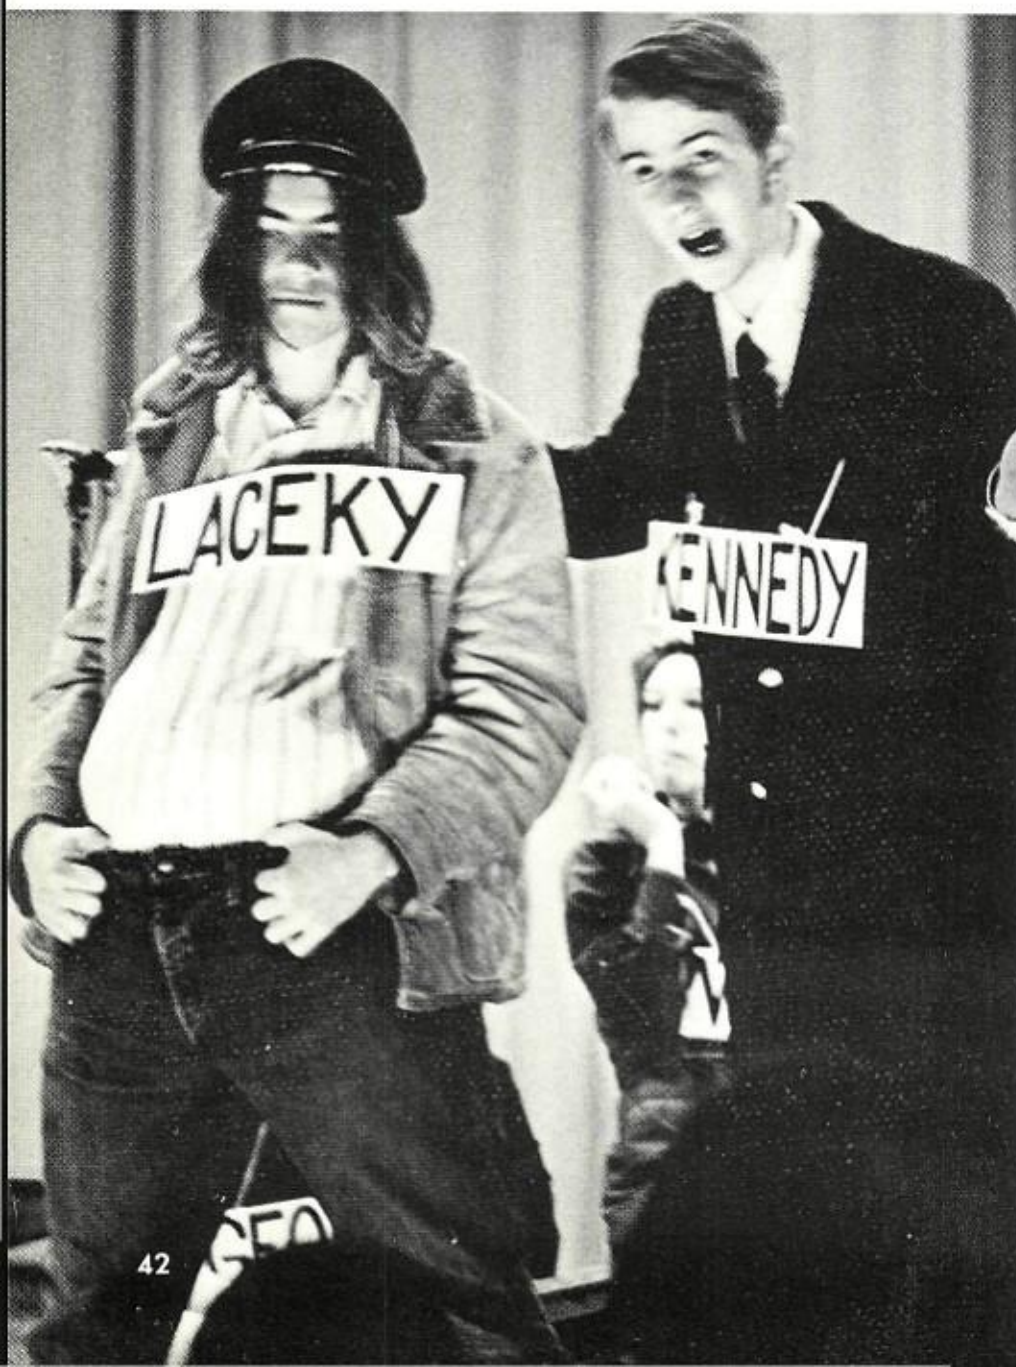

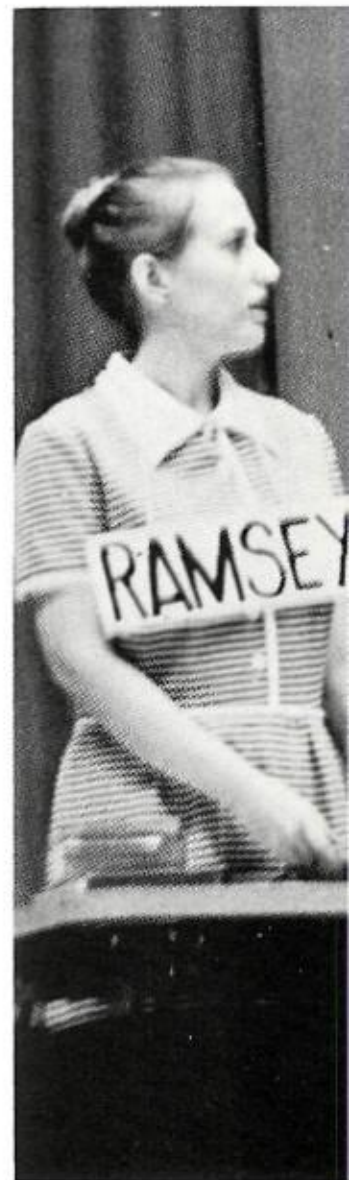

Viewers were tuned to "All My Purples," patterned after the day-time soap opera, "All My Children," and "The Waltons," a saga based on the school counselor and son of the same name.

The "Amateur Hour" featured guest appearances by the Sonny Bonos and Flip Wilson's Geraldine.

The audience was treated to dance techniques by faculty members who boarded the "Purple Train."

One twist of the wrist and the TV was tuned to the "Dating Game" where everyone used a different scoring technique.

By far the most hilarious skit was "Smoking in the Boys' Room."

The results ended in 15 girls being selected semi-finalists from which six were chosen. The number of beauties was expanded from five to six as a result of a tie. Beauties included Suzette Berry, Veronica Cooper, Kathy Giblin, Lorri McKnight, Karla Pool and Alice Shorkey.

The other semi-finalists were Lisa Cole, Kathy Hennington, Suzan LaPorte, Lisa McCall, Pam Scourton, Martye Sculley, Christy Thorp and Karen Wolf from.

The 1974 Junior-Senior Prom saw the Junior Class host the Senior Class in a dance displaying the theme of "The Isle of Golden Dreams."

The dance was held at the Setzer Center Ballroom where dancers were entertained by a local rock group, "Buckhorn."

Junior Class treasurer Sandy Taft reported that approximately $1000 was spent on preparations for the dance. The theme, refreshments, decorations, and band were chosen by the individual committees composed of juniors.

All seniors received invitations to the dance, while only juniors who participated in the magazine sale or light bulb drive received bids.

Traditional elections

Spring elections are a part of the tradition at BHS along with poster making, sign hanging, cheerleader practice, and speech making. These practices are as ancient as the building, but the tradition was broken with a new method of voting.

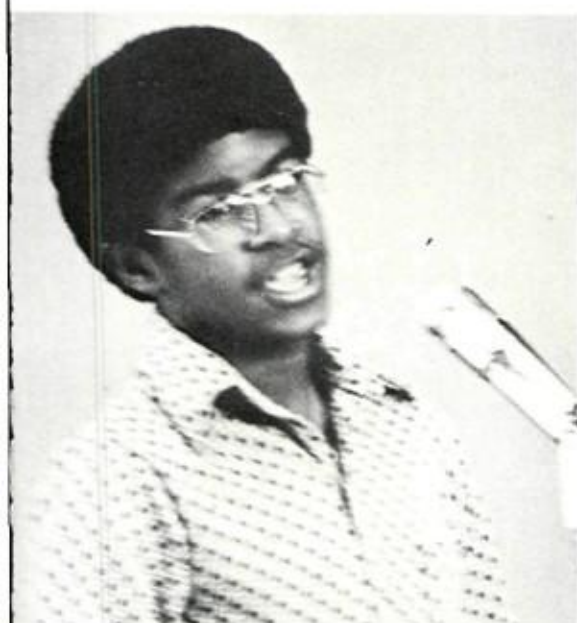

Key punch voting was introduced for the first time and maybe the last. It proved to be time consuming and complicated for many. Also, for the first time, girls were in the majority of the office-seeking candidates.

Carpet Carnival follows game

The Powder Puff game, which ended in a tie between the junior and senior girls, was followed for the first time by a carpet carnival.

The game had a rather slow beginning due to the lack of female players, but the tie left most with a feeling of accomplishment.

Afterwards, an all-school picnic, modeled after the successful Homecoming picnic, led to the contests and games, giving the campus a carnival atmosphere. Proceeds from the carnival went toward the carpeting of the Beaumont High Auditorium.

Carnival activities included a dunking machine, concession stands, a pie-eating contest, a tug-of-war contest, a shaving cream fight, a water balloon fight, and bike races. In addition to the contests, ticket stubs were drawn for various prizes.

Additional money to help pay for the carpet in the auditorium was raised through an all-school candy sale drive. The student council also helped pay for the blue carpet which was installed for the Senior Day assembly.

Faculty members conquer DJs

Above: "Mean Man" Hubert Monroe dribbles the basketball toward a goal while KAYC disc jockey Al Caldwell has difficulty keeping up. Below: Mrs. Margaret Bostic gives a friendly pep talk to members of the faculty who participated in the KAYC basketball game.

Students were dismissed from seventh period class to watch faculty members down the KAYC disc jockeys, 32-31. Teachers were given such names as "Big Brute" Chester Bowlin, "Hot Shot" Herman Hodges, "Soul Shooting" Gerald Saliens, "Jumpshot" Clarence Jackson, "Moose" Allen Cowart and "Farm Boy" Mike Guthrie.

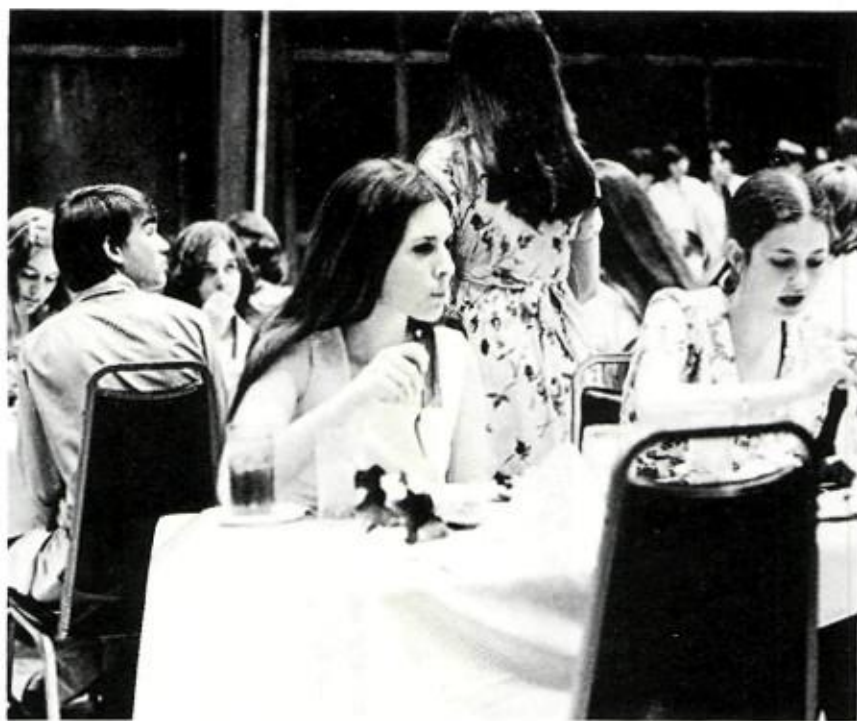

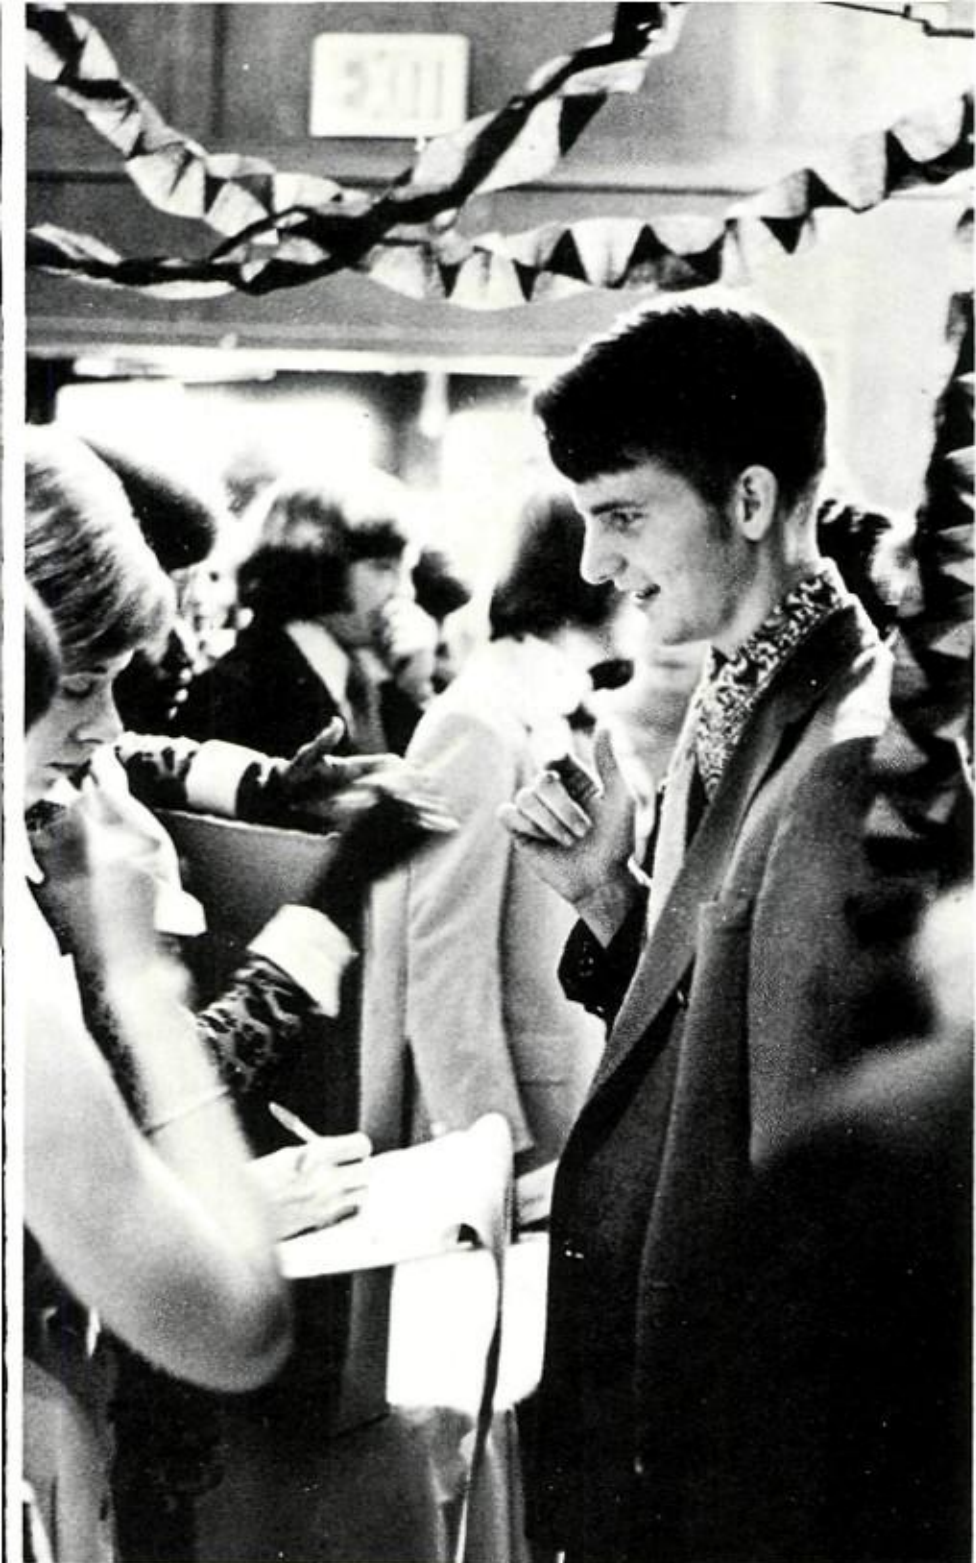

Some of the excitement during the game began when Al Caldwell started selecting students and a teacher from the stands to perform free throws for the DJs. Student teacher "Moose" Allen Cowart towered over every player, especially over "Farm Boy" Mike Guthrie, who was the most hilarious player in the game, dressed in overalls and a polka-dot cap. It looked as if the "fighting faculty" was going to be defeated at the start of the game, but with "Mean Man" Hubert Monroe's great capability of scoring, the faculty managed to squeeze toward the victory.

CLASSES

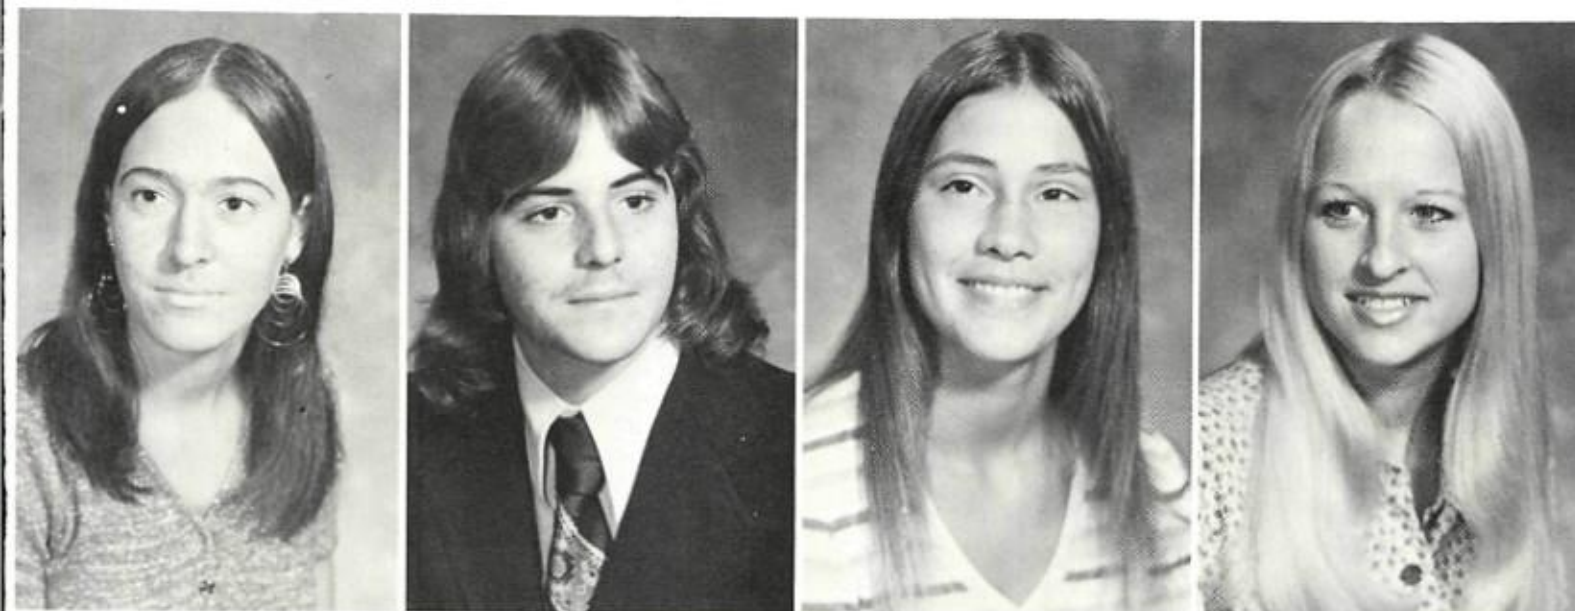

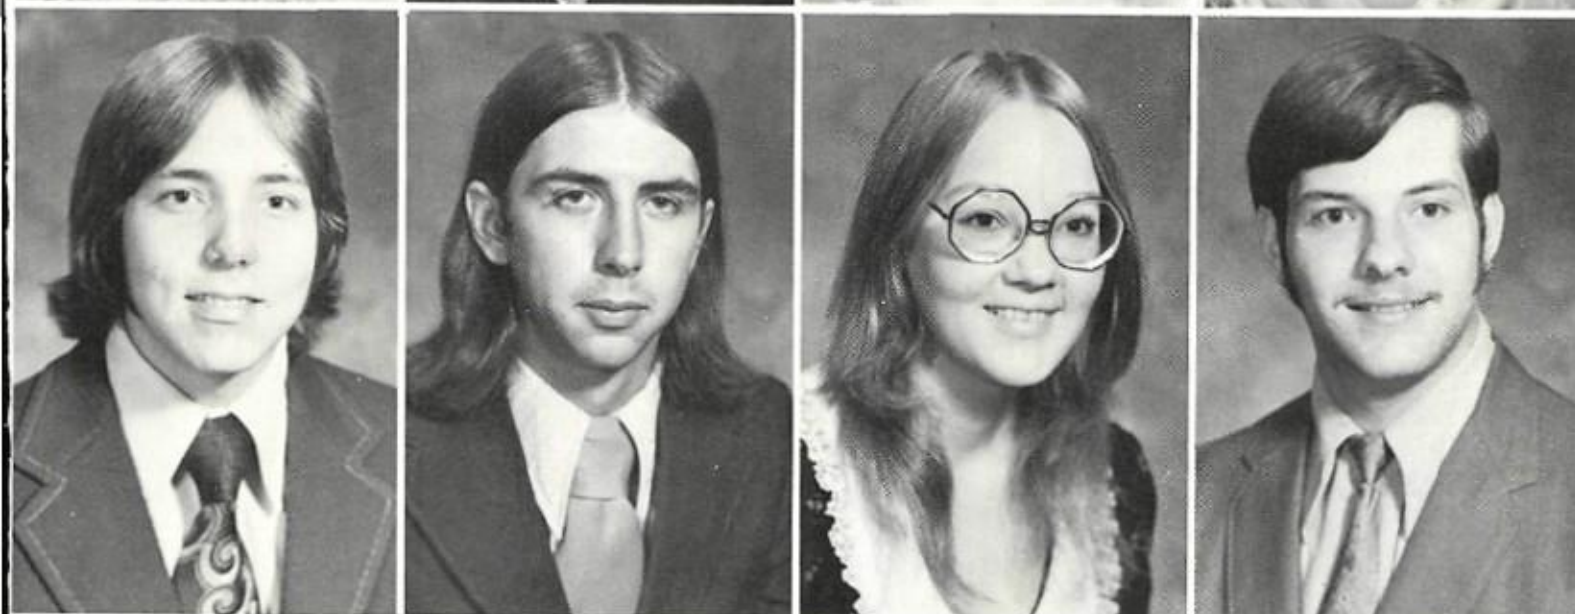

Looking back on 1973-74, seniors can remember a year marked with new ideas. The Senior Council was formed to better organize and represent the Senior Class, and it had an effective result. BHS's Homecoming was one of the best students could remember. Even though senior hall decorations failed to win honors, seniors with the help of Miss Evangeline George took full charge of the activities during the week which were topped off with a parade to the pep rally and a picnic of food and fun on the front lawn of the school. And, of course, there was the traditional Halloween candy sales which netted seniors $500 to build the treasury for senior night. Officers directing the Senior Class included Amanda Jackson, treasurer; David Taylor, vice-president; Pam Rogers, secretary; and Mrs. June White, sponsor.

'74 prosperous for juniors

This year was really a financial big one for the Junior Class. The annual magazine sale earned them $700, and the light bulbs left over from the sophomore year brought them $200. Then they really got to work and won the $50 first prize in the Homecoming spirit chain contest and the first prize of $15 for the Homecoming hall decorations. Their project had the theme of "Keep Beaumont beautiful; can the Trojans."

Freshman Class has 255 pupils

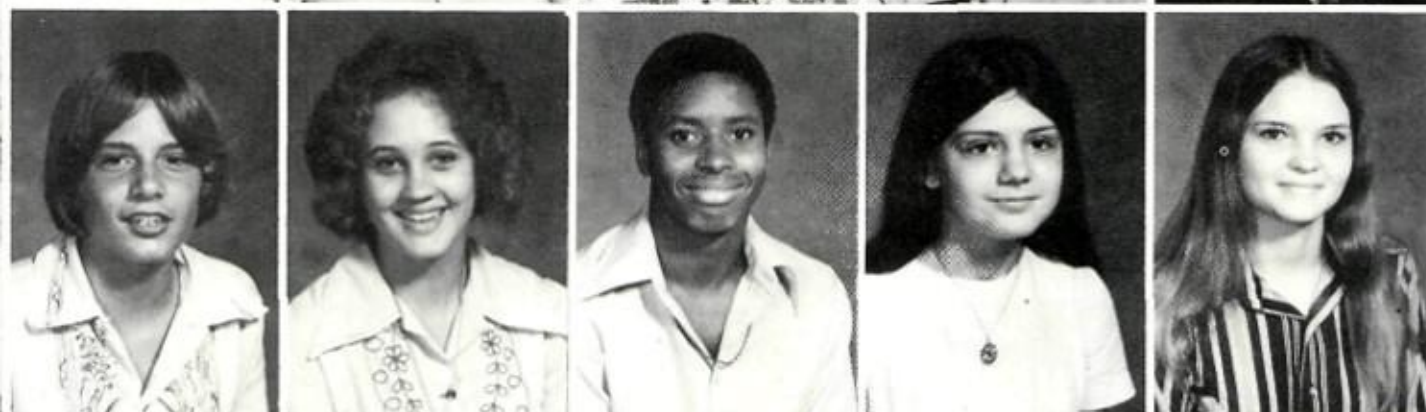

The Freshman Class, the largest with a total of 334 students, had a winning football and basketball seasons. Rating third in district in football and coming on a strong second in basketball, the Purples can look for unlimited athletic success for the upcoming years. Freshmen sponsored a candy sale and cleaned

Royal Purples have successful season

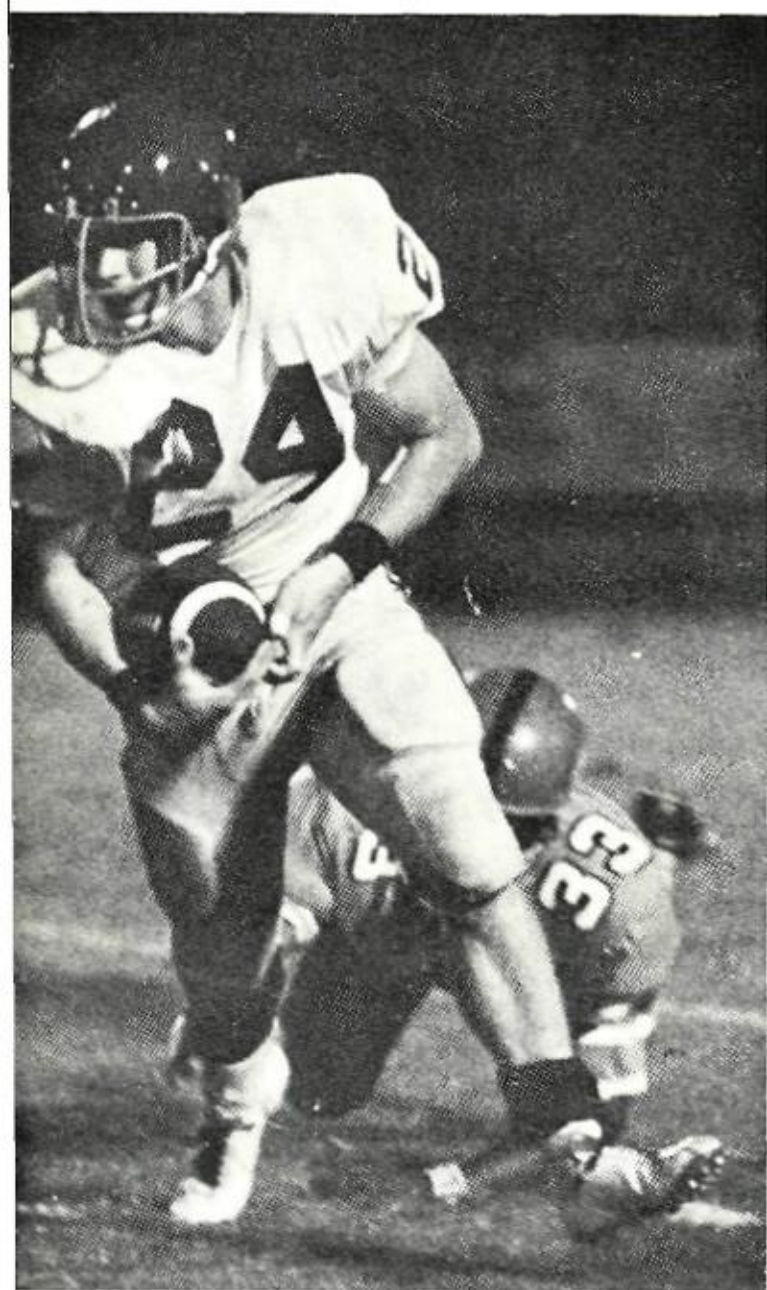

The 1973 football season proved to be an impressive one for the Royal Purples, who rose from their last-place district rating to a second-place tie with Hebert and Charlton-Pollard.

Despite the Purples' final game loss which cost them a bid at the first-place district crown, H. A. Butler's debut as head coach turned into a winning season. The Purples concluded with six wins and four losses, of which three wins and two losses were district. The highlight of the pre-district season was Stuart Pipkin being the state's leading rusher after the first half of the season. The team started off on a bad note with a loss to Clear Creek. Then after five games, the Purples' chart was three and two going into district.

The Lions then opened district with a convincing 21-13 win over French. Then after winning a wet homecoming against Forest Park and losing to South Park, Beaumont High kept its district hopes alive by beating Hebert. However, a disappointing loss to C-P dropped the Purples to second.

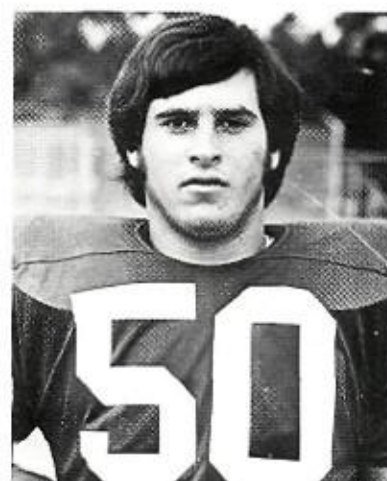

The BHS squad went to final elevation as Dan Rogas, Ben Slaughter, Bob Bobbitt, and Sammy Citrano were selected All-District players.

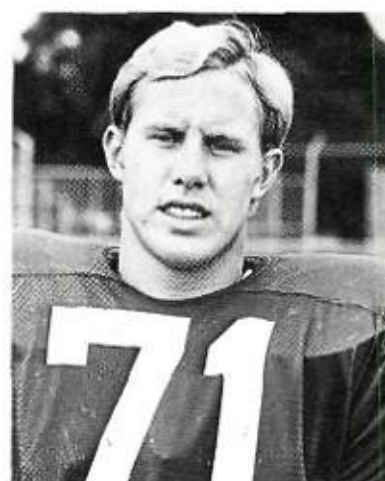

Fullback Stuart Pipkin (24) bursts past an Orange defender to make a sizable gain.

BHS football training, under the new direction of head coach H. A. Butler, instituted a new format of instruction called position coaching. This allowed for more individual instruction.

Varsity basketball team

Coach George Thompson's varsity players had a season record of 11 wins and 18 losses. Some of the victories were over Kountze, 62-60, and Vidor, 66-62, but the setbacks were to Thomas Jefferson, 74-57, at the Yellow Jacket Tournament, Forest Park, 71-47, and to Vidor, 65-57. Although the defeats were disappointing, the never-die spirit stayed with the team and continued throughout the season.

There are five lettermen returning next year. They are Samuel Boswell, Huey Gilmore, Lionel Keegan, Charles Malone and Eldon Parsons. Graduating seniors are Robert Allen, David Bass, Paige Cokinoes, Danny Mohr and Charles Malone.

Tracksters have rebuilding year

Track season started in December with the cross country team making a good showing in three meets. Robert Salazar and Mike Raines finished one and two at Forest Park and again at the Beaumont Track Club meet with Raines and Salazar reversing positions. In district Salazar took first and went on to regionals where he finished 48th out of 139 contestants.

In March eyes were focused on track and field with the team competing in seven meets. In Silsbee Salazar finished third in the mile and Mickey Rand finished third in the pole-vault. The two-mile relay finished fifth and Don Schwartz finished fifth in the high jump.

From there the team went to the remaining meets with no good results until district. In district Salazar finished a disappointing third in the mile with Raines finishing sixth. The 440 relay team of Stuart Pipkin, Alex Bando, Fred Hubbard and Rand finished fifth, with Hubbard finishing fifth in the individual 440.

The mile-relay team of Pipkin, Rusty Hood, Bando and Hubbard finished sixth with Rand winning the only field event by placing fourth in the pole-vault.

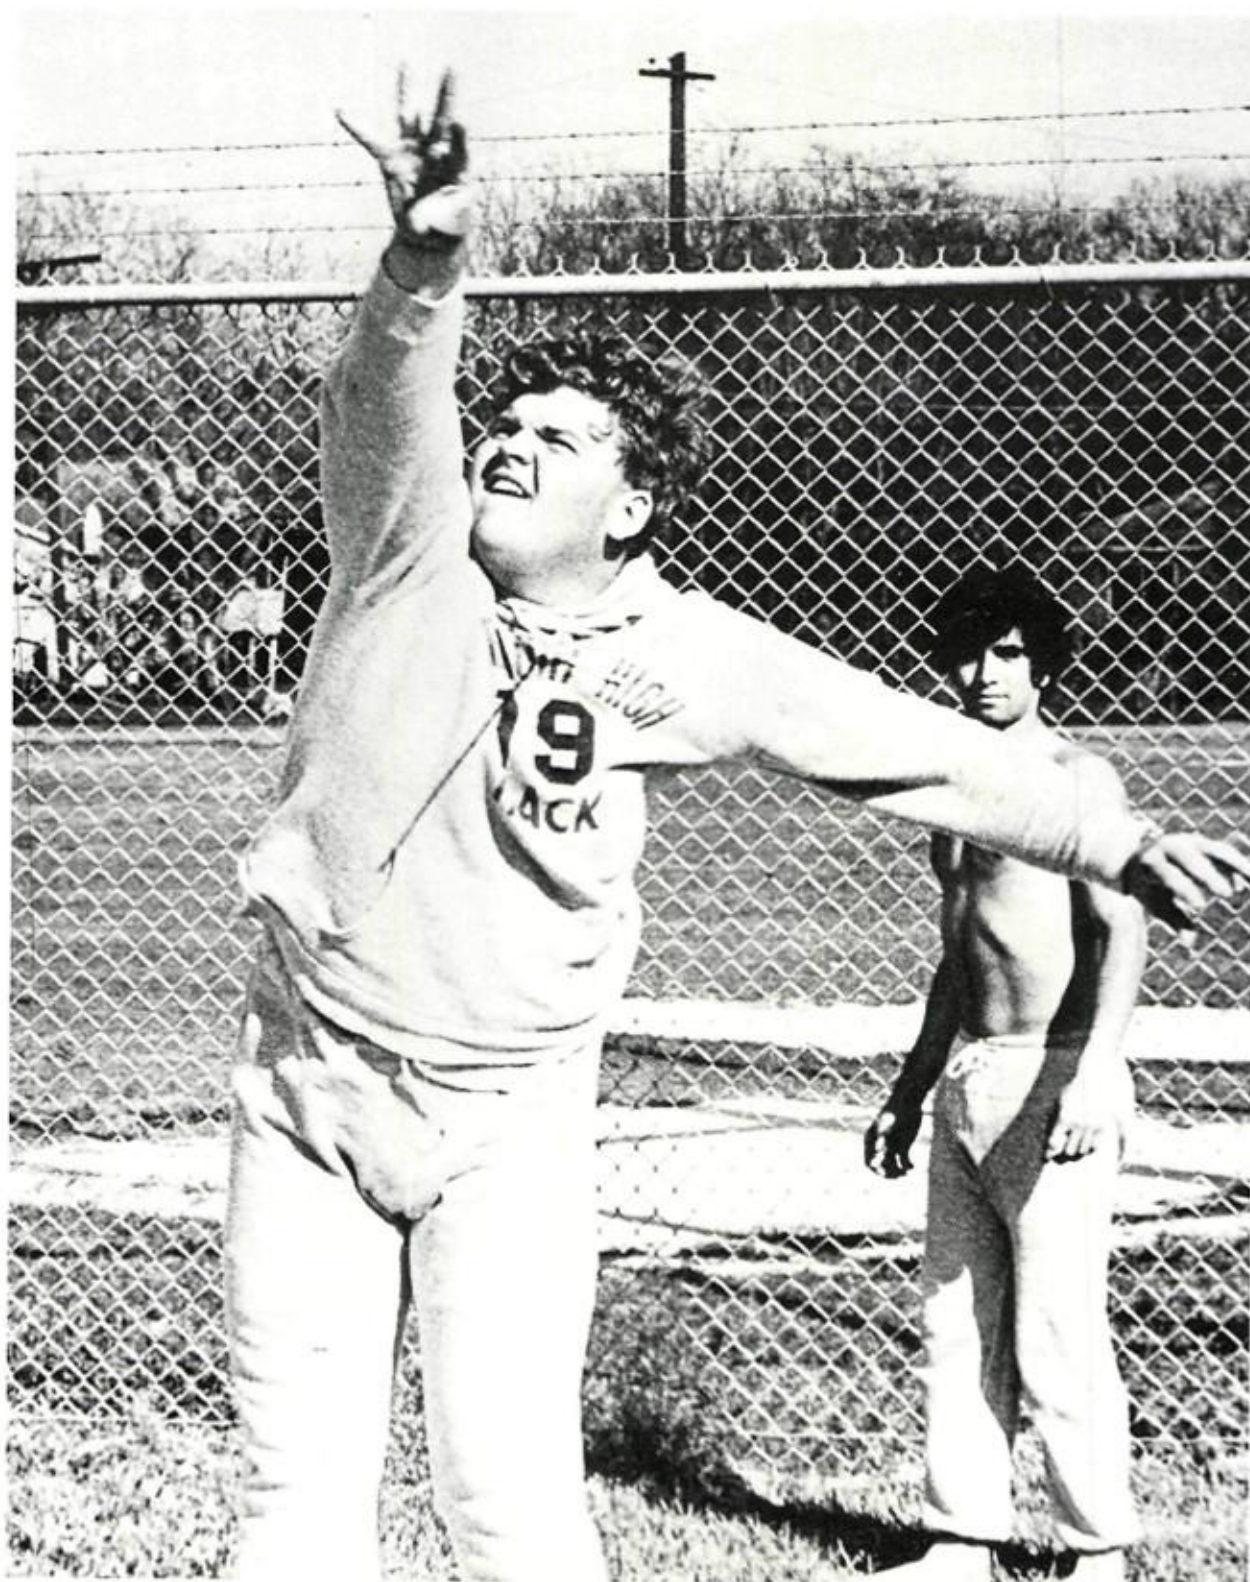

Overall, it was a rebuilding year with everyone expected back next year except for Raines and Salazar.

Girls Track

Squad has good year

For the first time ever, Beaumont High had a girls' track team this year. Twenty-five girls tried out but only a dozen were selected through attendance and performance. Attending four meets, the girls did very well and were the center of attention this season, even over shadowing boys' track.

In the first meet in Bridge City the team surprised everyone by placing 10 times in nine events and getting a point total of 51. Then in Silsbee the 12 girls placed well again with 3 first places, 5 second places, 2 thirds and 2 fourths.

In the BISD meet the girls did well again with a good showing into district. In district the team had ten places in nine events with the only first coming from captain Brenda Morris in the 440 yard dash. The 440 relay placed in the top three with a third as did Diane Kirkwood in the 60 yard dash.

All in all, it was a good year for the first girls track team and hopes are high with everyone expected back next year.

Left: Era Kirkwood placed in every meet in the long jump. Above: Brenda Morris was elected captain and most outstanding girl in track.

Golfers cop second in district

The golf team, under the leadership of Coach H. A. Butler, competed in such tournaments as the Westchester Invitational in Houston, Conroe Invitational Conroe, and the South Park Invitational at Tyrrell Park. Others were the Hardin Jefferson Invitational at Tyrrell Park, West Orange Invitational in Orange and the Orange Stark Invitational where Ray Walton was a medalist with a 75. In district competition, the Purples ended up second place to Forest Park, losing by only five shots. The district win entitled them to a regional meet in Houston where they failed to place. Players on the FRONT ROW are: Randy Babin, Stan Wolfrom and James Antilley. BACK ROW: Freddie Willcox, Lee Price, Ray Walton and David LeBlanc.

Despite pre-season expectations, the boys varsity tennis team did not seem to be able to put it all together and only three members placed in district.

Prominent singles performer David Taylor finished second in a close two out of three sets match while Steve Faggard and Alan Coleman placed fourth in doubles.

Other team members included Gerald Farha, Stuart Blum, Travis Heare, Stanley Keys and Howard House.

The girls' varsity tennis team was composed of Adrienne Charlton, Grace Heare, Monica Plangman, Marla Taylor, Julie Wilson and Terry Wilson. In district play the unseeded doubles team of Marla and Monica beat the fourth seed and went on to capture third place while Adrienne and Julie finished fourth. In singles action, Terry Wilson was beaten in a very close third set and finished fifth.

Baseball

Team effort, determination result

Bob Bobbitt exemplifies over all Purple determination as he strives for a score against Forest Park.

in winning record

The BHS baseball squad, under the sponsorship of Coach Terry Cobb, began the season fired with enthusiasm and promise but finished third in district. Its 16-10 slate reflects fine performance and its earliest outings revealed powerful hitting, solid defense, and an impressive pitching squad.

Midway in the season the Purples participated in the Beaumont Coaches Tournament. The Lions handed the French Buffaloes a 3-2 setback when Bob Bobbitt cracked a three-run shot in the bottom of the seventh inning with three outs. This win enabled the Purples to take the top spot at the tournament.

The Purples led for more than half of the district race with a 6-1 record but suffered three disappointing losses at the hands of Hebert, South Park and Forest Park. With this final defeat, the Purples lost their district hopes. Despite the fact that Beaumont was unable to capture the district crown, this season proved to be exciting and attracted many enthusiastic supporters.

Team shows well

The Purples boasted three outstanding players who were honored by being chosen to 21-4A's elite All-District squad for 1974. Bob Bobbitt was selected Player of the Year in District 21-4A. His versatile performance as an outfielder and pitcher were impressive. He was described as the catalyst that made the Purples winners and for his sportsmanship on and off the field. Grant Smith was praised for his almost flawless first base performance and a fine .300 batting average. David Stone was also placed on the honor squad for his talented mound abilities. Honorable mentions were given to Jim Cobb, Scott Shelander, John Slampa, Frank Rogas and Kirk Horn.

School paper earns much recognition

A member of the Purple Press staff attends all functions of school in order to report the complete news in the award-winning paper.

To be on the staff, a student must be in a journalism class although other students' work is accepted. Editors of the paper are usually advanced journalism students.

This year the paper won first-place ratings from Columbia Scholastic Press Assn. and the National Scholastic Press Assn., the award of Distinguished Merit from Interscholastic League Press Conference and an All-Texas rating from the Texas High School Press Assn.

The Vocational Industrial Clubs of America, which is dedicated to the furthering of leadership and training of vocational students, sold personalized stationery, which they printed themselves. They also sold wall hangings resembling cartoon characters. The print shop, the only high school print shop in the city, prints all stationery and forms for the district. Mr. Harold Patillo is their sponsor. Right: Members and guests at the VICA banquet.

ICT offers students vocational training

ICT, or Industrial Co-operative Training taught by Mr. Kenneth Abendroth, is actually an entire department offering students vocational training in any one of 100 approved fields. The trades range from electrical repairmen to television cameramen. The training gives students the basic knowledge needed to pursue an industrial career. ICT students can either work three periods at an approved employer or learn building trades at the district's technical training center.

HUNDREDS

Two coeds are announced as valedictorian, salutatorian

This year's valedictorian is Julie Horton while the salutatorian is Kathy Hennington. For the first time, the winners of the school's highest honors were determined by their seven-semester grade point average. In previous year, a test was administered to determine the academic standing of outstanding seniors.

Julie, a member of National Honor Society, was named to Who's Who and chosen Outstanding Teenager of America and a Senior Favorite. She plans to attend Lamar University.

Like Julie, Kathy was also in National Honor Society and named to Who's Who. Kathy, who was elected the Most Likely to Succeed in the Senior Class, plans to attend Texas Tech.

Determined by the seven-semester grade point average, Julie Horton, left, was named valedictorian and Kathy Hennington, lower right, was salutatorian. Even though they have competed throughout high school, the girls remained good friends.

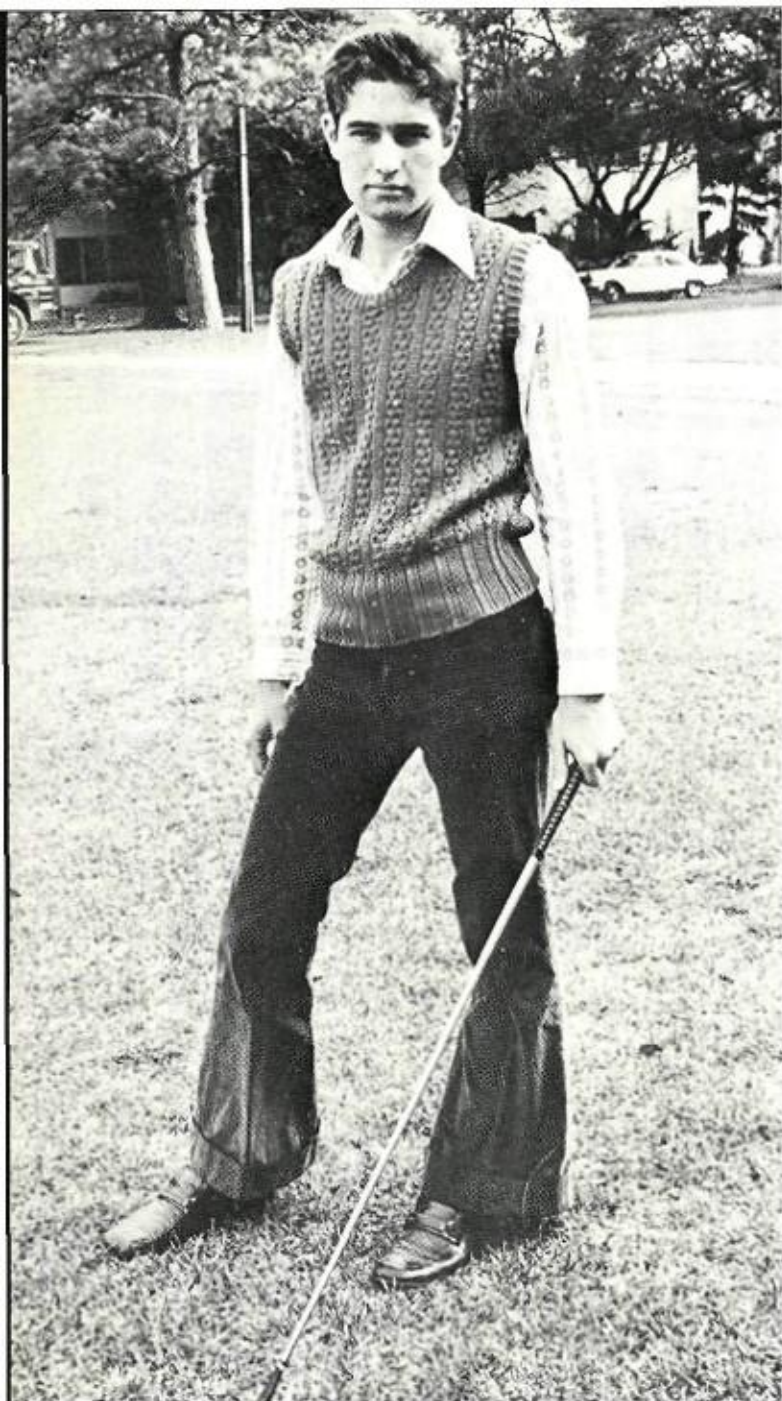

Average determines

Like the valedictorian and salutatorian, the Magna Cum Laude graduates were chosen by the basis of their seven-semester grade point average. The Magna Cum Laudes were limited to the top ten graduates.

Those graduating with the honor of Magna Cum Laude were Stuart Blum, Kathy Hennington, Julie Horton, Richard Kendrick, Becky Mitchell, Carolyn Murphy, Michele Nunez, Shawna Peters, Grant Smith, and Ray Walton.

Cum Laude graduates were Gregory Austin, Gene Burrus, Dale Campisi, Lynn Coffman, Mary Domaschk, Steven Fisher, Sharalynn Guidry, Grace Heare, Donald Hearn, Amanda Jackson, Thomas Lamb.

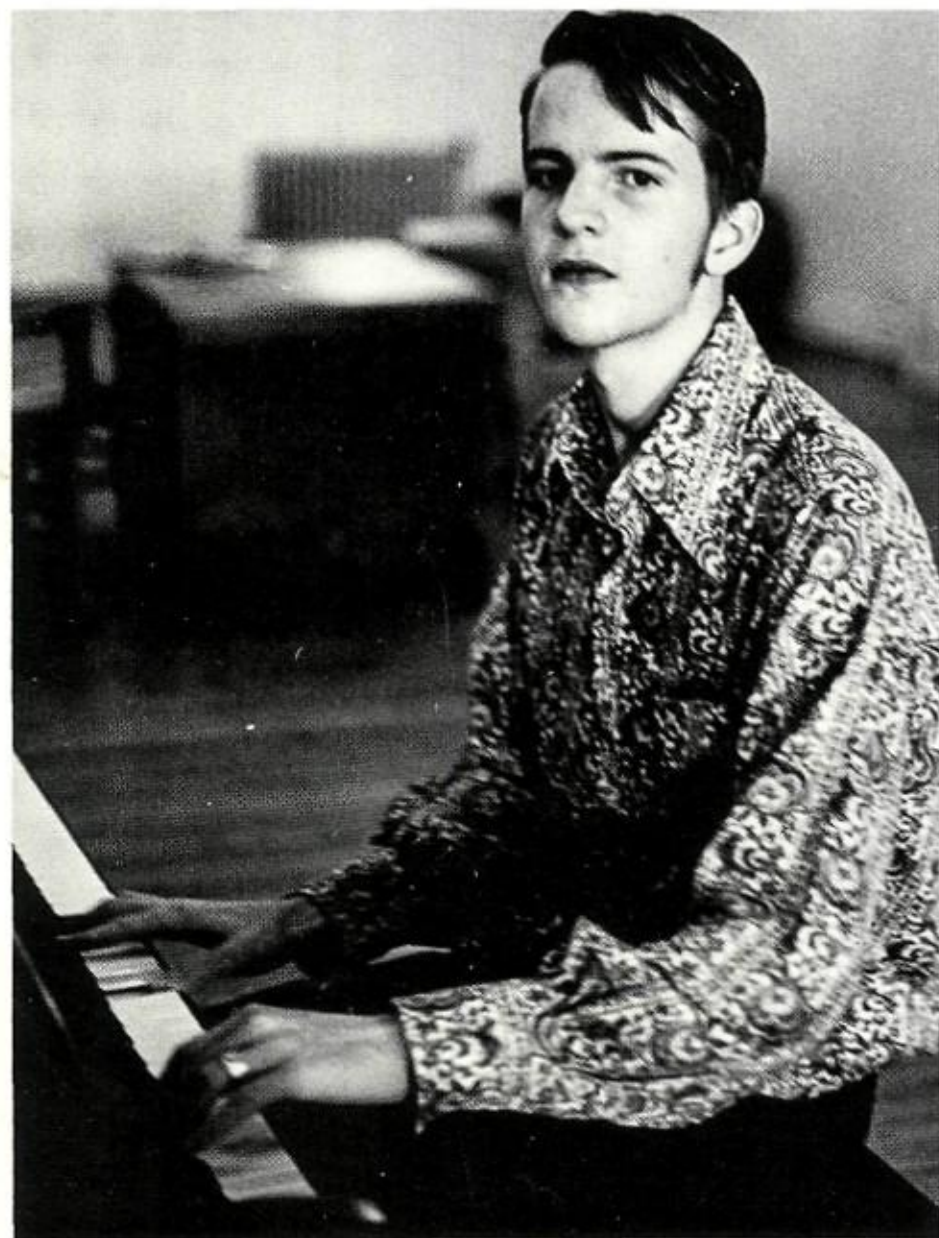

Also, Carol Lawrence, Janet Lichey, Lisa McCall, Lorri McKnight, Allan Night, Kathy Olexa, Ginny St. John, Donald Schwartz, Debbie Slampa, Jo Elizabeth Warren and Theresa Wilson.

Finalists included Kathy Hennington, Suzan LaPorte, Carol Lawrence, Lisa McCall, Pamela Scourton, Martye Sculley, Christy Thorp, Beth Warren and Karen Wolfrom.

Award programs honor outstanding students

Two separate assemblies during the same week gave faculty and community members an opportunity to honor outstanding students.

The first assembly was the Service Awards Program. Jeannie Willcox received the American Legion Auxiliary Girls' State Award while Stuart Pipkin won Boys' State. The Pilot Club Patriotism Award was given to Amanda Jackson. Farm and Ranch Awards were given to Kathy Boykin and Mark Hugg. The Danforth Award was awarded to Dan Rogas and Kathy Hennington, the latter who won the D.A.R. Award. Julie Horton and Ray Walton were presented the American Legion Awards. Publications Awards were given to Becky Mitchell, Allan Night, Ben Orgain, Christy Throp, and Tim Crum. Tommy Lamb was presented a gold key from Quill and Scroll for his photo that won national recognition. The Art Department gave its award to Ricky Peckham and recognized Clint Ray for art work that won at a Houston showing. David Bass received the Student Council Award for his work in that organization.

Twelve students were presented the BHS Award for their academic grades and extra-curricular activities. Students included David Bass, Kathy Hennington, Julie Horton, Mark Hugg, Richard Kendrick, Lisa McCall, Becky Mitchell, Allan Night, Dan Rogas, Christy Throp, Grant Smith, and Ray Walton. The Royal Purple Award, which honors outstanding students or faculty members, was given to Dan Rogas.

At the Academic Awards

Assembly, Grace Heare and David Stone received the Board of Education Award. Debbie Slampa got the Administrative Management Society Award; Tom Fort, the Atomic Energy Symposium Award, the Math Award, and the American Chemical Society Award; Kathy Hennington, the National Merit Scholarship Award and the Texas Chemical Society Award; Ray Walton, the Bell Telephone Award.

The annual Mortimer Scholarship was awarded to Lynn Coffman, a Naval four-year scholarship to Tim Crum, the Beaumont A&M Mothers Club Scholarship to Don Pauler. The John Picazzo Memorial Scholarship to Vicki Vanover, the Lucas Memorial Scholarship to Billy Brown, and the Bernard Rawdin Scholarship to David Stone.

The Vocational awards were given to Gloria Bourque for being the Outstanding Student in VOE. Ana Armendariz won first place in Information Communications Level II, and Mary Trevis won fourth place in the File Clerk division of contests.

The Seroptomist Citizenship Award was given to Becky Mitchell and Allan Night. Becky also won the regional and national awards.

Elaine Barron received the Betty Crocker Award, Vicki Vanover the Finger Furniture Award, and Stuart Blum, the Physics Award.

Valedictorian Julie Horton, salutatorian Kathy Hennington and high ranking boy Ray Walton, were given highest scholastic standing awards. New officers of next school year were installed.

Srs. wrap up school year
